Game Instructions and Rules:

Visit the links for each numbered challenge. Read the information on these pages for each challenge, and answer each question or fill in the blanks using information from the applicable link (or a link that was followed from the primary link).

Patrol members are not allowed to use google or other Internet searches to answer the questions. Patrol advisers should monitor to ensure that answers are coming from the linked articles or from things the scouts may know from memory.

When your patrol has all of the answers or game time runs out, have one member rejoin the main Zoom room and send all of the answers in numbered order to Noah K. or Mr. Thomas in a personal chat message. Do NOT send the message to "Everyone" from the chat pull-down list.

Each correct answer is worth 5 points. Any ties between patrols will be determined by which patrol provided the most correct answers first.
